TOP HIGHLIGHTS

'Hiking for waist deep powder lines at the crack of dawn with photographer Hamish Frost and a squad of reps just before Christmas. Pretty sobering first run of the day from the highest point in VT, running on 4 hours sleep, but the photos we got were worth it!' WILLEM TREMLETT

'I worked a number of rail jams this season, building the kickers and rails was rewarding in itself but seeing seasoned skiers do numerous tricks along with newbies getting their first ever air on skis was great to witness. The accompanying music and barrels of Vin Chaud made for a very fun and exciting atmosphere!' ALEX CLEARY

'Picking one highlight of the season is hard because the whole experience in general has been amazing. But snowboarding home from a classic apres of saxophones and table dancing, with the sunset ahead across Val Thorens is a memory I will never forget. To be able to call the mountains home is 100% a highlight in my books' TARUN KNAPP
